

CITY OF WALLER COUNCIL MEMBER NANCY ARNOLD ELECTED 2018
H-GAC VICE CHAIR

The Houston-Galveston Area Council is pleased to announce that Council Member Nancy Arnold of the City of Waller has been elected Board Vice Chair for 2018. She has served on the H-GAC Board of Directors representing General Law Cities since 2014. Also elected as 2018 H-GAC officers are Brazoria County Commissioner Stacy Adams as Chair Elect and City of Missouri City Councilman Floyd Emery as Chair.

The 2018 officers were sworn in at the H-GAC General Assembly Annual Meeting on Friday, March 9. Congressman Pete Olson, TX-22, was the principal speaker at this annual gathering of local elected officials, administrators, civic and service leaders, and business and industry representatives. Waller officials attending the meeting included Mayor Danny Marburger and Mrs. Marburger, Councilmember Dwayne Hajek, and Betty Hart, representing the Waller Economic Development Corporation.

H-GAC (www.h-gac.com) is a voluntary association of local governments and local elected officials from the 13-county Gulf Coast Planning Region, which includes an area of 12,500 square miles and nearly 7 million people. H-GAC works to promote efficient and accountable use of local, state, and federal tax dollars; serves as a problem-solving and information forum for local governments; and helps them analyze trends and conditions affecting the region in order to respond to their needs.
